1:12 pm Depart DCA for SNA (stop in ATL)

7:30 pm Land in SNA

8:00 PM Shuttle picks up from SNA and drives to Ritz-Carlton.

8:00 – 9:00 pm Opening Reception (ADF Senior Counsel and Senior Vice President of

Strategic Relations and Training will give opening remarks on the importance of achieving victories through an alliance, reflecting on s importance of achieving victories through an alliance, reflecting on some of the victories achieved this past year. ADF President and CEO will give an address speaking to why standing for free speech for all and religious liberty for all is vital more today than ever.)

Monday, July 8

9:15 am Securing Freedom's Future for the Next Generation (Presenter will discuss the importance of achieving victories for freedom for all Americans. They will address what a country looks like that safeguards religious liberty, the freedom of speech, and the sanctity of life at every level of government.)

9:45 am Break

10:15 am The Faces of Freedom's Future (Session will begin with remarks on the importance of religious liberty and how civil liberties travel together. The loss of religious liberty signals the loss of other vital freedoms, e.g., freedom of the press, economic freedom, and national security. Panel will follow with ADF clients (including a women's homeless shelter director, a child welfare provider director, a pastor, and a college student who faced discrimination and coercion of speech on her college campus). The panel will discuss the growing government intolerance of beliefs with which it disagrees, and the importance of ensuring all Americans' constitutionally guaranteed freedoms remain protected by the government.)

11:30 am Working Lunch (Roundtable lunch with other attorneys to discuss the Supreme Court and various legal strategies to protect First Amendment freedoms. It will be a smaller group and each attorney will come prepared to make remarks and contribute substantively to the discussion.)

1:00 pm	Gender Identity Ideology: What's the Harm? (Session will begin with an overview of the issue, the legal framework of the definition of sex, and the implications of redefining it in the law. Panel will discuss how redefining sex creates an unfair playing field for women and girls, particularly in athletics. Panel will also include a discussion from the perspective of a psychiatrist and what best practices look like for policy makers to ensure care is given to those struggling with gender identity.)
2:30 pm	Break
3:00 pm	Legislating Inequality: How the Equality Act and 'Fairness for All' Threaten Freedom and the Common Good (Panel discussion of the impact of these federal proposals on First Amendment freedoms, the medical community, economic freedom, parents and children, and women and girls. Panel will address pending legislation in the U.S. Senate that has passed the House, as well as a proposal being considered for introduction in both chambers.)
4:00 pm	Break
4:30 pm	On the Basis of Sex: Briefing Strategies for the Supreme Court's Upcoming Title VII Cases (Roundtable discussion of cases pending before the U.S. Supreme Court concerning the meaning of "sex" and the scope of Title VII.)
5:30 pm	Adjourn
Tuesday, July 9
9:15 am	Strangers in a Strange Land (Discussion of the importance of civility, dialogue, and robust discourse as the foundation to ensure the rule of law and freedom flourishes in democracy. Presenter will also address how respecting disagreement, even on very personal matters, fosters a more democratic society where the people's individual freedoms are preserved and the government remains their greatest defender.)
10:15 am	Break
10:45 am	Federal Efforts to Safeguard Religious Liberty (Panel that you will be speaking on together with Administration officials to discuss the federal government's recent efforts to secure freedom in law and policy, and to confirm men and women to the judiciary committed to the Constitution and the rule of law.)
